GCM Industrial Co., Ltd. - 2023 Communication Between Independent Directors, Internal Audit, and Accountants

1. Communication Methods Between Independent Directors, Internal Audit Supervisors, and Accountants

1. Monthly audit reports and quarterly follow-up reports are submitted to independent directors. The internal audit supervisor regularly reports to independent directors during Audit Committee meetings, discussing the execution of audit reports, internal audit deficiencies, and follow-up recommendations.
2. The external auditors report to independent directors at quarterly Audit Committee meetings regarding the audited (or reviewed) financial statements and internal control audit results. Discussions include whether there are financial statement adjustment entries and whether newly revised regulations impact the financial statements.
